“AllBusiness” (a D&B company) ENDORSES KINDERDANCE

Melbourne, FL - March 25, 2010 – Here’s an opportunity to bring dance, movement, and fitness to kids through the Kinderdance program. Children ages 2 to 12 can learn ballet, tap, modern dance, gymnastics, creative movement, motor development, and fitness skills. The five unique Kinderdance classes are taught by instructors certified and trained by the company. No studio is required. Classes can be set up at schools, recreational/park facilities and other locations. The first Kinderdance franchise started in Scottsdale, Arizona in 1979. Today they can be found all around the world. No dance experience is necessary to become a franchisee. Training and support are provided.

Why This Company Makes Our Top 300 Franchise Opportunities AllStar List

Kinderdance moved up on our AllStar list thanks to its improved growth (from #262 last year to #224) and financial health rankings (from #74 to an outstanding #11). This children’s fitness company has longevity on its side, having been franchising for more than three decades.

In good times and bad, parents are willing to spend on programs like Kinderdance that enhance their children’s health and well-being. Kinderdance is involved in charitable organizations such as Traveling Tutus, which donates dance apparel and accessories to children worldwide.
