KINDERDANCE EXECUTIVES ON VENDOR PANEL AT DANCE LIFE TEACHER CONFERENCE IN ORLANDO

Melbourne, FL, August 12, 2009 – Kinderdance co-founders, Carol Kay Harsell and Bernard Friedman along with Darlene Van der Wal were recently asked to speak on a panel at the Rhee Gold's DanceLife Teacher Conference held in Orlando, Florida on August 4th. The conference was attended by 700 dance teachers and studio owners.

Rhee Gold's DanceLife Teacher Conference is one of the largest gatherings of dance educators in the world, including teachers, school owners, office managers, master teachers, vendors and more.

Carol said "We were proud to represent Kinderdance on a panel with other vendors who represent the best in the dance industry".

Kinderdance®, established in 1979 is a nationally recognized dance, gymnastics and fitness program for children age's two to twelve. Their 101 Franchisees currently teach over 12,000 children weekly at over 800 various locations in 32 states and 5 countries. Classes are held on site in child care centers, recreation centers, hospitals, military bases, bowling alleys, fitness centers and many other locations that have space that can be utilized as an additional learning center.

Kinderdance® places emphasis on building self-confidence and self-esteem in children through learning to share, lead, interact and respond to others' needs as well as their own. The programs incorporate the arts, movement, education, music, fitness and the fun of learning into a young child's life.
